A bi-vocational pastor for most of his life, he is passionate about supporting and developing leaders in both the church and marketplace. He has a wide range of experience and expertise in business and theology, and a unique perspective into the challenges and opportunities created when these two overlap. Steve is an entrepreneur and remains involved in the daily operations of a business while also serving the church in various ways. *"Steve Byler consented to come to speak at an Annual Business Conference for Kingdom Business Economy. Steve's personal style, combined with the experience in business, connected at a high level with the businessmen present. The presentations were clear and concise, included personal experience, and were delivered with enough authority to convince the business owners that he was a legitimate voice. The answers he presented to common scenarios and quagmires businesses face were very practical and helpful. Many of the attendees rated Steve's input as the most valuable input of the event. (Feb 2022)
Steve also presented helpful material resources, and a number of attendees signed up for his ongoing business and leadership mentoring, a high value in today's high-expectancy marketplace."*
